¹ The phrase “subhana Allah,” means: singling Allah as excelling in all good qualities, that He transcends all shortcomings, and that He is unique all around.

² The particle “ما” is “إسم أو أداة شرط,” = conditional noun/particle; or “ما” = “إسم موصول” = connective noun meaning that which! See الذر المصون, لـ احمد الحلب and إعراب القرآن, لمحمود صافي!

³ The particle “إن” means “ما” or “إقد” See القرطبي!

⁴ The word “ذكرى” is “reminiscence/remembrance” based on this great Ayah, “And if the Satan (causes) you^s to assuredly forget then sit not, after [the] reminiscence/remembrance” (S6: 68).

⁵ The word “يصلى” transliterated “yassla” here for lack of a properly corresponding word in English, means broil simultaneously from all sides, as if the entire body is immersed in the intensely kindled Fire!

⁷ The word “تَزَكَّى” carries two meanings: (1) paid Islamic zakah (see Lexicon attached to this Translation) and (2) the “[he] had exculpated, befitted/suited himself!” See التفاسير and اللسان!
